I started by painting the sides of the cake, and outlining some of the flowers. This look is made with two different shades of blue gel food coloring. One was navy blue, the other was royal blue. I used a couple different sizes of paint brushes, from a pack of brushes I ordered online. A thin brush worked great for outlining, and a slightly wider brush was perfect for filling in the petals of the flowers.

Making your fresh flowers food safe is pretty simple although it can be time consuming depending on how many flowers you need to put on the cake. I would typically allow myself an extra hour at set-up to place flowers. Cut your main large flower and a few smaller flowers to accent it. Trim some plastic wrap to about a 3"x3" square.

In summer the more robust flower option include cornflowers, calendulas, carnations, dianthus and rose buds. Avoid nasturtiums, borage, chamomile and phlox as they will wilt very quickly. At Maddocks Farm we generally send out our flowers without stalks on them so that they can either be balanced on, or stuck to the cake as you choose.
