The ways parted as an inevitable consequence of the clarification of Christian doctrine and not because Jesus defined his faith over and against Judaism, a view which has had a long and sad history. Dunn's account was criticized when it first appeared because it was confined to theological development and assumed that theology inevitably governed the concrete development of community relations.

DOCTOR: I think you need a Doctor. (The Doctor kisses Rose. The golden energy transfers from her eyes to his, then she faints in his arms. The Doctor exhales the energy back into the Tardis and its doors close. Jack picks up a handful of Dalek dust from the floor, then runs when he hears the Tardis engines.
