The University of Guelph resides on the treaty lands and territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We recognize that today this gathering place is home to many First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples and acknowledging them reminds us of our collective responsibility to the land where we learn and work.

The University of Guelph, and everyone who studies here, explores here, teaches here and works here is committed to one simple purpose: to Improve Life. You're not a number. You're a Gryphon. Going to university isn't just about getting a degree or a job. (Although yes, our students do). It's also about coming into your own as a person.
