I wonder if Verizon and the phone manufacturers are starting something new -- on the Casio Ravine 2 and on the Brightside, the manuals show that the memory card should be oriented so that the gold colored contacts on the memory card are facing up. After skimming through the manual, the Brightside sounds like a fun phone.

For about 2 months, the data on this phone hasn't been working at all, and as a result the Family Locator also hasn't worked. I have tried to do a manual update but the phone says it is up to date. It is my daughter's phone and I like the Locator option, especially in winter as she has a 2 hour travel time each day.
